Oh nursing mother my mighty mother so been wonder you have giving me the vision of the golden sphere so pure with shining gold if seems that the divine vision are so rare and wonderful.

Suddenly appear a gold mountain of luxuriant sphere, radiating glowing blazing Grace.

Then within that appear a path of light.

First a mountain of light came showing an open path inside.

I went to the path within the light, there I saw a platform

Above that platform there was an open hall.

Above that platform there was a tower of seven storage with so many wonders.

How can I reveal all this in words.

There was a white light which became a ruby color gem:

At the beginning the blackish blue gem transform into red coral color then into emerald green and then a red ruby color. After this transformation the white pearl became a colorless crystal.

In other stage the group of color which forms the colorless crystal became white light: it represent the mountain white light, some kind of para shakthi and other shakti.

From the white came the red ruby light this is the transformation light.

All the multi colors came to transform into the golden gem,

Then ultimately all became colorless, the crystal prism.

Above the seven storage was a golden colon.

When I ascend how can I revealed the new unknown sphere of this golden colon

There was so much pressure to not go up.

Then came thousand celestial powers and Beings, giving strong pressure on me

They enchanted me, without surrendering to them I got away with the help of God's Grace and power.

With this help I could climb that golden pillar and golden crest experience

Above the crest jewel was the highest ending final stage experience

Even above the apex in the supportless shrine there was a golden shrine with thousand carat purity of gem gold

Within that tower of that golden eye I went without hesitation, even then million of core of pure shaktas manifest they powers and religions and there are five colors, white gold red green blue black shaktas who manifest they powers.

They saw me and ask me who are you, but I never answer and went up

They was five pintacle founction God, Bhrama, Vishnou..

They never obstacle me but show me the way of the gem set door

Then the Divine Father, Mother of God where there, helping me to go

There the supreme Mother, Father nearest to God

First I met my dear mother she give me the Divine ambrosia, then only with the Grace of the Divine mother I could see the vision of the supreme Lord Nataraja dancing inside my soul

At this moment only APJ Nataraja was advising me in my soul with His dancing Grace.
Only Him knows what he gave me by his Grace
This is wonderful since
